Visa regulations for Nigerian nationals holding the Ordinary Passport.

Nigerian nationals who have permanent residence in the foreign country where a Thai Embassy /

Consulate - General is situated, they can apply for a visa in that country. In this case, the applicants are not required to present the Certificate of Clearance issued by the National Drug Law Enforcement Agency of Nigeria.

Nigerian nationals whose permanent residence are in the foreign country where no Thai Embassy /Consulate - General is located, they have to file their visa application at the Royal Thai Embassy in Abuja. In this regard, they are required to submit the Certificate of Clearance as one of required documents in support of visa application.

Nigerian nationals who have permanent residence in Nigeria or in other countries which are under jurisdiction of the Royal Thai Embassy in Abuja; namely, Benin, Cameroon, Republic of the Congo, Central African Republic, Equatorial Guinea, Ghana and Sao Tome & Principe must make their visa application in person only at the Royal Thai Embassy in Abuja. In this case, they are required to present the Certificate of Clearance as one of required documents. This is to comply with the request of Nigerian authorities in order to prevent Nigerian drug traffickers from entering Thailand. Details of required documents are shown in Appendix 1.

Nigeria: Procedure for visa application.

Nigerian applicants have to carefully read and observe the above-mentioned visa regulations. They need to complete a visa application form and present it together with all required documents shown in Appendix 1.

The Embassy will not accept any incomplete visa application. Therefore, the applicants should check these required documents before their submission. In some cases, The Embassy reserves the rights to request additional documents as deemed necessary. The submission of all required documents does not guarantee the issuance of visa.

After examining the authenticity of these required documents, the Embassy will invite the applicants for interview.

The successful applicants have to pay for visa fee according to Non-Immigrant visa (Student visa) for which they apply. The visa fee is non-refundable.

It takes 2(two) working days to process a visa after the Embassy has obtained the complete supporting documents from the applicants.

Additional suggestion

The submission of forged documents as part of visa application process is a criminal offence under the Nigerian Criminal Code.

Any applicant who has committed such an act will be placed on the black list and reported to competent Nigerian authorities for further action.
